PRESS RELEASE: LCCU goes Regional! Your Pathway to Financial Freedom!

The Valley, Anguilla; Feb. 12, 2019: Liberty Co-operative Credit Union (LCCU) today announces that it has officially joined the ranks of regional non-profit financial co-operatives serving 2.3 billion Caribbean citizens and growing.

LCCU is proud to join the growing membership of the Caribbean Confederation of Credit Unions (CCCU). CCCU is an affiliate of the World Council of Credit Unions and serves co-operatives throughout the Caribbean. CCCU provides technical expertise, promotional and educational campaigns, and training opportunities, as well as various industry specific resources.

In-keeping with the principles and values promoted, CCCU advocates ‘Social Purpose: People Helping People. Credit Unions exist to help people, not make a profit. Our goal is to serve all of our members well, including those of modest means – every member counts.’”

Like its affiliates, LCCU is a member-led non-profit financial co-operative society. Low cost affordable loans and convenient deposits are the core services offered in the immediate. The foremost priority is to provide a safe place for members to invest savings, attain individual goals, and source affordable and sustainable lending options.

“We are very happy to have you on board as we seek to extend the principle of co-operation among co-operatives”, wrote Peter Etienne, CCCU’s Deputy General Manager. LCCU’s ultimate goal is to offer exceptional and consistent member service with the highest quality of financial services delivered with integrity and professionalism.

LCCU is incorporated, licensed and regulated in accordance with the laws, provisions and regulations of Anguilla and registered as an NRSP. The general public is encouraged to explore the credit union difference and find out more about how credit unions add value in the communities served.

Give us the opportunity to join you on the “Pathway to Financial Freedom”
